Travel insurance:

It is essential that you have adequate and appropriate cover for your trip including any adventurous or safari activities such as walking in the parks. It is important to have adequate insurance which will cover cancellation costs from the date of booking as well as medical expenses (including evacuation and repatriation) and personal belongings. Please read your policy details carefully and take them with you on your trip. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover you purchase is suitable and adequate for your particular needs.

Cancellation Policy

In the event of written cancellation, the following forfeiture of program cost will be assessed based on the number of days prior to program departure that the cancellation was received:

90-61 days prior 20% of the program cost
60-31 days prior 50% of the program cost
30 days or less 100% of the program cost

We cannot accept liability or pay compensation where the performance or timely performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected by force majeure, or where you suffer any damage or loss as a result of such events.

In these booking conditions, "force majeure" refers to any event that we or the relevant service provider could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid. Such events may include, but are not limited to: war, the threat of war, civil strife, riot, civil disorder or unrest, industrial disputes, actual or threatened terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disasters, fire, outbreaks of epidemic or pandemic diseases, technical problems with transport, cancellations or amendments to scheduled flights, closure or congestion of airports or ports, adverse weather conditions, and all similar events beyond our control.

In circumstances amounting to force majeure, we will not issue refunds. However, if we are able to recover any monies from our suppliers, we will pass those refunds on to you.

In case of any further queries please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thanks & Regards
