DETAILED ITINERARY

On Arrival at Delhi Airport / Railway Station, we drive to Nainital. Nainital is the lake of three sages, or the Tri Rishi Sarovar, as mentioned in the Manas Khand chapter of the Skanda Purana. As recorded in history, the three sages, Atri, Pulastya, and Pulaha, stopped over at Nainital on their pilgrimage to quench their thirst. Finding no water, they dug a hole and transferred some water into it to form the sacred lake of Tibet, Mansarovar. Thus the famous lake of Nainital came into existence. Another legend has it that the left eye of Lord Shiva's wife Sati fell in this centre and formed an emerald eye shaped lake, thus emerging the city of Nainital. Recent history records reveal that Nainital was brought into the limelight by P. Barron, a British sugar merchant, in 1839.
